

Experimentalising Body and Mind
Second Workshop of the German-French Doctoral Programme
“Culture, Philosophy and Ethics of Medicine”

Institute for History, Philosophy and Ethics of Medicine (Mainz), December 11th-12th 2009

Friday, December 11th 2009

14.00 h Coffee

Welcome & Introduction (Norbert W. Paul)

14.30 – 16.00h Session I

Claude Debru – Normativity versus autonomy

Benoit Elichabe – Stem cell research and its implication for brain diseases

Coffee (ca. 16:00-16.30h)

16.30 – 18.30h Session II

Lara Huber & Lara K. Kutschenko – Challenging strategies of clinical research: the case of MCI

Zbigniew Kotowicz – Neuroscience and Psychiatry: are they compatible?

ca. 19.00h Dinner („Kasematten“, Novotel Mainz)

Saturday, December 12th 2009

09.00 – 11.00h Session III

Norbert W. Paul – Cognition as a normative concept: Distinguishing LIS, PVS, MCS

Jakov Gather – Aging society and social desirability: Is cognitive enhancement an option?

11.00 – 12.30h Round up with Soup

Venue:

Institute for History, Philosophy and Ethics of Medicine, (Besprechungsraum im UG)

Am Pulverturm 13, 55131 Mainz